

Free
& Paid
Events

May
15-22
2022

with
*Jenny
Batten*

ARTIST IN RESIDENCE
John Coleman

Bookings

https://air_jcoleman.eventbrite.com

Celebrating and strengthening the chords between us

St Andrew's Uniting Church
92 Jetty Road, Glenelg

John Coleman

John is a singer / songwriter in the acoustic folk tradition and has written and produced 10 albums of original songs. John has experience working with groups of varying abilities to create songs.

Jenny Batten

As a singer, art therapist, Spiritual Director and an accredited Interplay facilitator, Jenny is curious about the arts and spirituality and loves to explore the points of connection that give life and sustain creativity.

Cost

We want to make this creative venture accessible for all. Below is a suggested list of costs. Please pay as you are able. If you are able to pay more, please consider doing so. We entrust ourselves to the goodwill of community believing that all our needs will be taken care of and all who wish will be able to participate.

- $150 for entire week includes all events plus tutorial
- $80 for Monday retreat retreat materials, refreshments and lunch
- $20 for Tuesday evening sing-a-long, song writing, refreshments
- $30 for Friday concert an evening of music with John Coleman and the Joyful Noise Choir
- $50 tutorial one-on-one music writing with John Coleman

Flow for the week

Sunday 15th 10:00 am

Contemplative worship led by John Coleman with music, readings and re-creating silence

Monday 16th 9:30 am–3:30 pm

Retreat designed to establish creative community, encourage a loving relationship with our voices and get in touch with emerging possibilities

Tuesday 17th 7:00–9:00 pm

Hospitable sing-a-long and gathering seeds to inspire a new welcoming song written by John Coleman

Friday 20th 7:30 pm

John Coleman in concert with the Joyful Noise Choir

Sunday 22nd 10:00 am

Worship to celebrate the chords between us arising from experiences of the week

Plus

Tues., Thurs., Fri. 11:30 am–1:00 pm

Joyful Noise Choir rehearsals to prepare for Friday's concert no experience necessary

Tutorials

Find your voice and book in for a 60-minute session with John Coleman for assistance with crafting a song of your own.

Scheduled with John during Artist in Residence week

